

DISCLOSURE NOTICE

(1) The American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP) is offering you a license agreement that would allow you to perform lawfully, at your place of business, any of the millions of copyrighted musical works that are covered by the license.

(2) The fee schedule and other contract terms applicable to the ASCAP license may be found in the agreement that you have received from ASCAP. The rates and terms of royalties under the agreement are the same as those for comparable businesses in your county.

(3) You may check whether specific musical works are covered by the ASCAP license agreement, or find out if specific writers or publishers are members of ASCAP, by calling ASCAP at (888) 663-0828 during regular business hours; or you may write to ASCAP, PO Box 331608-7515, Nashville, TN 37203-9998, attn: John Johnson.

(4) Additional information about ASCAP's members and the musical works in the ASCAP repertory can be obtained in a variety of other ways. Separate databases of works that have been registered with ASCAP since January 1, 1991, or identified in ASCAP's surveys of performed works since January 1, 1978, are available online at the ASCAP Web Site, www.ascap.com (access the "ACE Database of Musical Titles" to determine whether particular songwriters or specific songs are in the ASCAP repertory). The ASCAP Web Site may also be accessed via the Internet Web Site of the New Jersey Department of the Treasury, Division of Revenue and Enterprise Services, at www.state.nj.us/treasury/revenue/njmusical-licensing.shtml (for information, contact the Business Services Support Bureau at 609-292-9292). Data similar to that contained in the ACE Database is also available on DVD-ROM and is available free of charge by written request to ASCAP, 250 West 57th Street; New York, NY 10107, attn: Director of Repertory. More comprehensive records of the titles, dates of U.S. Copyright registration (if any), writers and current publishers or other copyright owners of all known works in the ASCAP repertory are available for your inspection at ASCAP's New York office during regular business hours (9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Monday through Friday). A DVD-ROM containing a current list of ASCAP members can be obtained gratis by written request to Mr. Johnson at the above address. A computer-generated listing of copyrighted musical works in the ASCAP repertory may also be obtained by written request addressed to Mr. Johnson at a cost of $2200.00 plus shipping and handling (the listing is over 10,000 pages in length). You can also call or write to our Repertory Department (Clearance Section) at our New York address (the toll-free telephone number is (800) 95-ASCAP).

(5) The foregoing information is being provided to you in accordance with the provisions of the 1996 New Jersey Music Licensing Practices Act, N.J. S. A. 56:3A-1, et seq. Our failure to provide this information would be a violation of the Act.

NOTICE OF COPYRIGHT LAW

If you perform any of the musical works covered by the ASCAP license agreement without a license or other authorization, you may be sued for violating the Copyright Law of the United States. If you perform music at your place of business, ASCAP suggests that you comply with the Copyright Law by (1) obtaining an ASCAP license, or (2) discontinuing all use of music covered by the ASCAP license agreement, or (3) obtaining authorization directly from the copyright owners who are members of ASCAP.
